Across the Juniata River Valley in the fall, the leaves turn into beautiful shades of red, orange and yellow. We have gathered up a few of our favorite places where you can take advantage of the scenery to the absolute fullest.

Jack's Mountain- This view gives leaf peepers the chance to see into two different valleys. Big Valley is to the North, and Ferguson Valley and McVeytown is to the South. Turn onto PA-655 Belleville. Turn left onto Wills Rd. and continue on Jack's Mountain Rd to the top. From Rt 522, McVeytown turn right onto Jack's Mountains Rd & continue to the top of the mountain.

Penns View Overlook- From State College follow Rt. 45 east. About 5 miles after Spring Mills follow signs to Poe Valley State Park and/or Poe Paddy Picnic Area. Cross Penns Creek on the Millheim Pike and head up the mountain. Turn left on Pine Swamp Road and left on Poe Paddy Drive. Penns View is at the top of the ridge.

Big Valley Vista- Siglerville/Milheim Pike. From Siglerville, follow signs to Poe Valley State Park. See unobstructed views of Big Valley.
